

IN THE CORONERS COURT
OF VICTORIA
AT MELBOURNE

Court Reference: COR 2011 2479

CONDITION UPON THE RELEASE OF DOCUMENTS

Section 115 (3) of the Coroners Act 2008

I, Judge Ian Gray, State Coroner, in respect of the investigation into the death of

Details of deceased:

Surname: ATAKELT
First name: Michael
Date of birth: 9 August 1988

Background

1. The person investigated as part of Operation Drecks (the subject) will be called to give evidence in this inquest for the purpose of determining whether the subject had any involvement with Michael Atakelt immediately prior to his death.
2. It is therefore important that the interested parties in this matter are provided the materials contained within the Operation Drecks Brief of Evidence to allow appropriate preparation for their respective questioning of this witness and to make any relevant submissions (the intended purpose).

Conditions

3. Pursuant to section 115 (3) of the Coroners Act 2008 (the Act), I impose the following conditions upon the release of the Operation Drecks Brief of Evidence:
 - 3.1. The documents are only to be provided to the interested parties whom have been granted leave by me to appear as interested parties for the inquest into the death of Michael Atakelt.
 - 3.2. That with the exception of seeking legal advice or opinion for the intended purpose, the interested parties are prohibited from providing copies to, or publishing any part of the Operation Drecks Brief of Evidence, without the express written permission from the State Coroner.
 - 3.3. That the Operation Drecks Brief of Evidence must be stored in a secure location and the onus remains on the interested party receiving the material to comply with this condition.
4. I further remind the interested parties that section 115(4) of the Act requires that any person to whom a document has been released must comply with any condition placed on that release and under section 115(5) that knowingly or recklessly failing to comply with such conditions incurs a penalty of 60 penalty units.
5. I further direct that these conditions remain in place until otherwise ordered.
